2012 Preservation Workshop Series

PLEASE DO NOT FEED THE FURNITURE!

Caring for antique and fine furniture & woodenware

Sat. January 14 10:00am-12:00 pm

The do's and don'ts of techniques and products designed to care for furniture and other wooden objects in your home.

Workshop presenter and Historical Society Director Donna Baron will discuss ways to prevent problems and what to do if your furniture has already suffered structural or finish damage. Participants are encouraged to bring a small piece of furniture or woodenware or photographs of a larger piece for group consideration of its preservation.

*Registration is required for this popular series of programs.
Admission is Free for Members and $2 for Non Members*

POTTERY AND CHINA AND GLASS OH, MY! Taking care of your fragile heirlooms

Sat. February 11 10:00 am—12:00 pm

This workshop will provide guidance on cleaning and displaying your treasures at home.

Led by Historical Society director Donna Baron, participants will discuss stains, cracks and chips as well as ways to prevent further aging and damage.

Each person is encouraged to bring no more than two pieces of pottery, china or glass for the group to investigate.
